The Battlefield 1967

The Battlefield is a memory book for Mary Washington College. A year's life is crammed into a few short pages. The whole story cannot be found here, only pieces, but pieces designed to jog a thought, a remembrance.

This book is to be skimmed now, the pictures are to be enjoyed and laughed at, but the time for remembering is not 1967, for the past is still too linked with the present.

But when the mist of years haze these days, the Battlefield will serve as a torch to cut through, to bring back perhaps a smile, perhaps a tear, but always a memory . . .

Of momentary joy experienced.

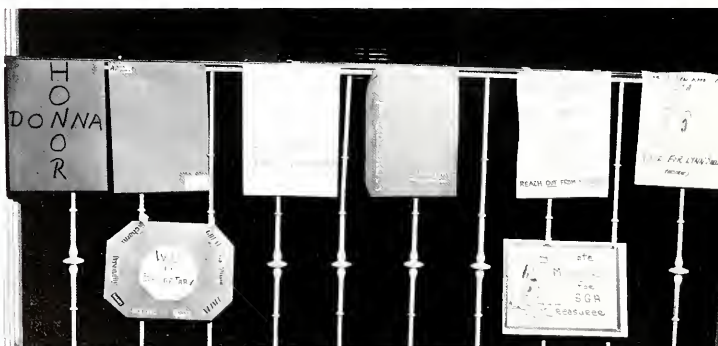

*Of noise and screams
and excitement and fun,*

And more fun,

Of confusion,

Of two hearts in communication.

Dedication

Dr. Edward Alvey, Jr.

Dean of the College

For the past thirty-three years, Dr. Edward Alvey, Jr. has watched Mary Washington College grow from a small teacher's college to a highly respected liberal arts college for women. His role has not been that of passive observer. Whether on study tours of educational systems in Europe, at national and local meetings, or behind his desk at Mary Washington, Dean Alvey has endeavored to make concrete the highest ideals in education and in honor. To the multitude of students who have known him, he has been friend, professor, administrator, fellow student, as well as the most popular entertainer at the campus Christmas party.

To Dr. Edward Alvey, we dedicate the 1967 Battlefield.

Lewis

Oh those circles!

How could anyone at MWC get ulcers?

"You need five blind dates?"

"Wait until you get this back!"

Dig that filling!

"I wonder if he has forgotten me?"

"Should I wear this one?"

Bushnell

"Anyone for an encore?"

"What did he say about me . . . Oh, is that so?"

President, Becky Duval and Mrs. Garner, Head Resident.

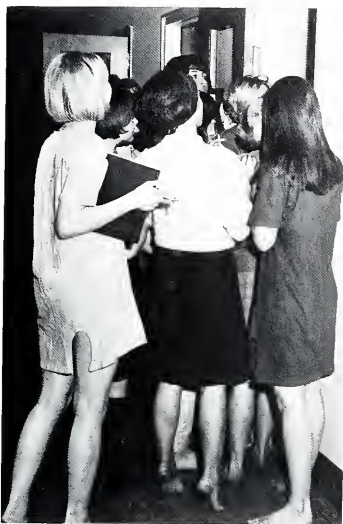

"Dale, why don't you turn on the television?"

Marshall

House President, Blair Hoffmann and Mrs. Prasse, Head Resident.

"Is it for me?"

A typical night before exams?

The weather never keeps those Marshall girls down!

"We could squeeze them and maybe they'd fit!"

"You mean you can't come!"

Mason

President, Beth Moore and Mrs. Hamilton, Head Resident.

A typical prank on the hall.

"I wish I were younger."

Mason's version of the stag line.

Randolph

Head Resident, Mrs. Conklin and Jean Hague, House President

"I've forgotten his name already!"

And there was music . . .

Weekday interruption.

"Gee, he's cute!"

Valentine's Day often brings roses.

Russell

President, Ann Perinchief talks with students.

"Standing in the doorway . . ."

"You said 'six' no-trumps?"

This is certainly a changel

A roommate entertains a friend's date.

Tri-Unit

House President, Susan Thomas-Madison, Cande Caughey-Custis, Susie Lee-Ball, and Mrs. Chase, Head Resident.

It's exercise time.

"What a mess!"

A faithful friend.

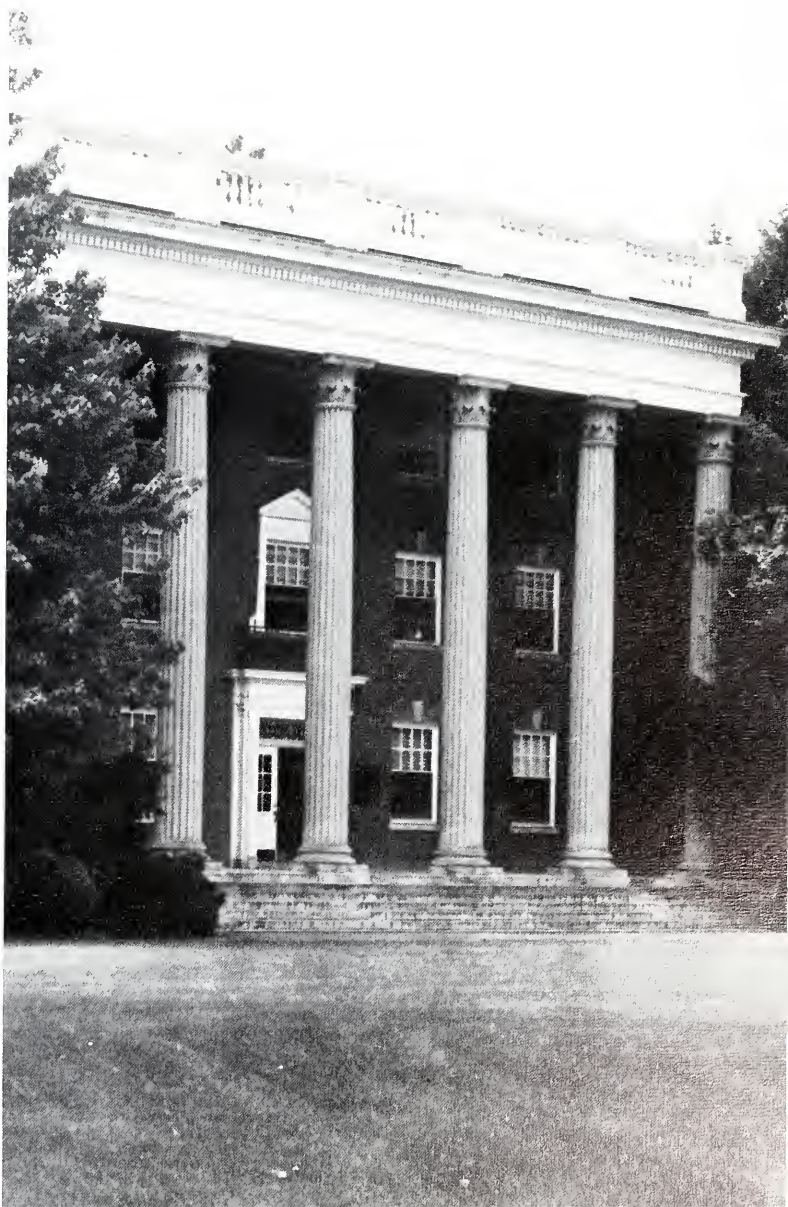

"I didn't know anyone was listening!"

"Twenty-five cents a minute, please."

Virginia

Head Resident, Mrs. George and Lyn Marks, House President.

"I do have a red one you can borrow."

"... Oh, Freshmen, we love you."

"I just can't face this day!"

"Set 75c, Trim 30c. Kathie Kayes, Inc."

"Janet, why not pause and refresh yourself!"

Westmoreland

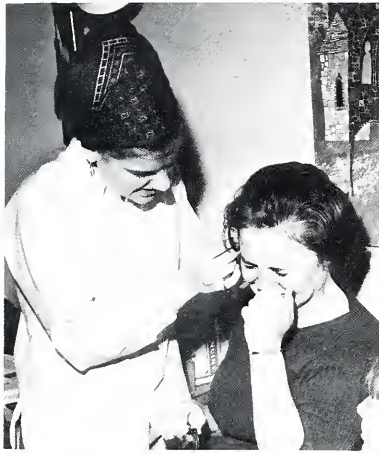

Staff Assistant, Miss Gelsleichter and Linda Todd, House President.

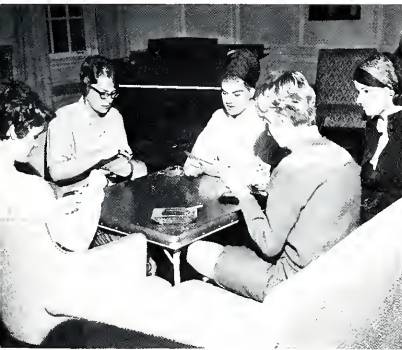

"Senior superiority!"

"Don't cry yet; it's only ice."

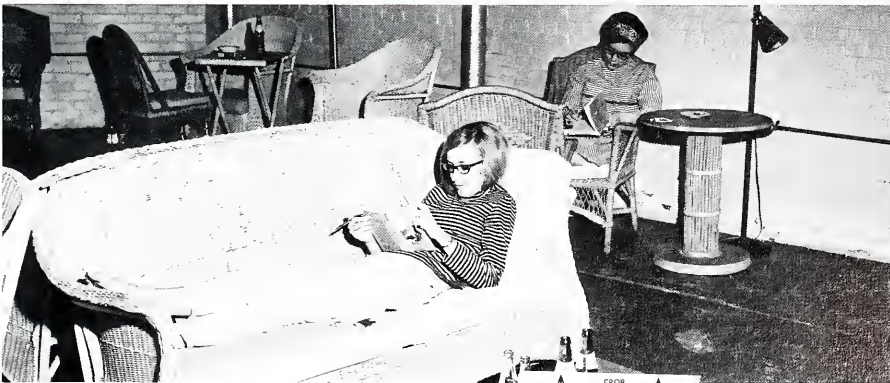

"Old maids?"

"Left hand green, right foot blue!"

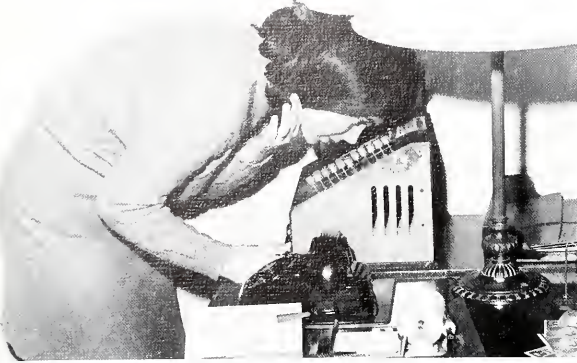

"If 'he' ever calls again!"

An evening of quiet study.

Willard

"May I please have your attention!"

"Are you sure this one is in Vogue?"

Walter Cronkite and the news.

Head Resident, Mrs. Billings and Jane Bradley, House President.

Calls, candy canes, and coffee make your toes curl!

"Our first May Court promenade!"

Brent

"Who drinks coffee at 2 a.m.?"

House President, Marie Bast and Head Resident, Miss Pons.

"Those French magazines . . ."

"Gee, this certainly is a hard one."

Framar

"Of course I can knit and study."

Head Resident, Mrs. Ordogh and Patsy Grubbs, House President.

Trench Hill

"Is this all we have to quench thirst?"

Concentration, Incorporated!

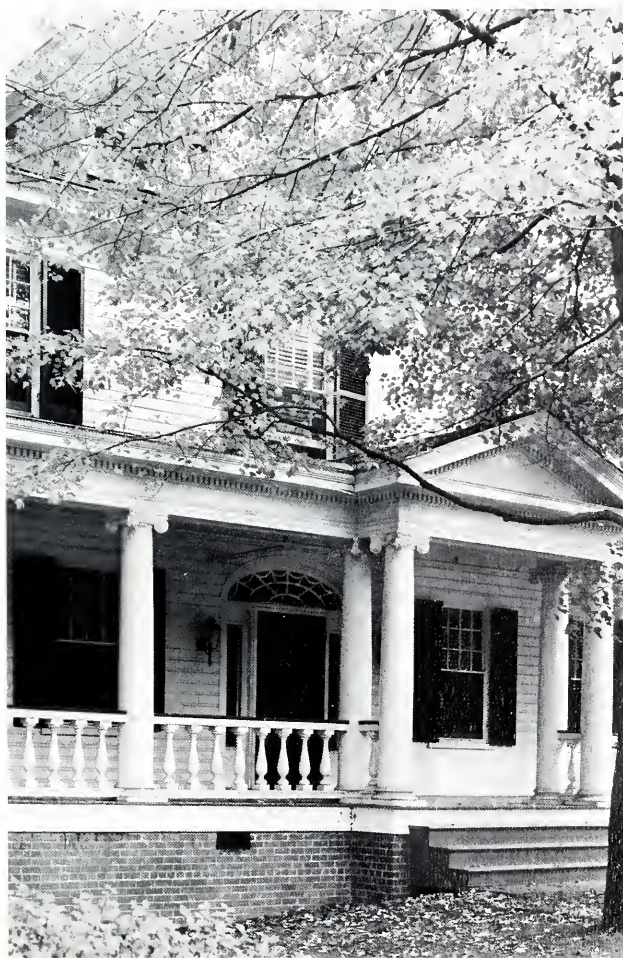

"According to my notes . . ."

A typical group sing at Marye.

Marye

House President, Barbara Stevenson.

Jefferson

The plans for Thomas Jefferson Hall took tangible form this year when actual construction was begun. The 195-unit building occupies the sight of the Old Fredericksburg City Reservoir. The building is flanked by Bushnell Hall and by Combs Science Building and is in keeping architecturally with these buildings. Thomas Jefferson Hall, named for the founder of the University of Virginia, will house students on all four floors beginning in September, 1967.

Mathematics

The Seniors serenade Chancellor and Mrs. Simpson.

The Seniors proudly wear their caps and gowns for the first time.

"That looks great!"

Susie Church accepts the two academic hoods from Chancellor Simpson at Convocation.

Some residents of Westmoreland add to the 100th Night party.

The 100th Night party will long be remembered.

The Alumnae Association entertained the Seniors at a lovely tea on 100th Day.

Throughout the year . . .

Fall

Care packages are great!

"Do you think we'll ever get everything in these closets?"

The Home Economics Club has a guest speaker.

"Well, I finally made it!"

"And it continued to snow . . ."

Winter

"Brother it's cold outside."

Exams came along before we knew it.

A typical evening in the Spanish house.

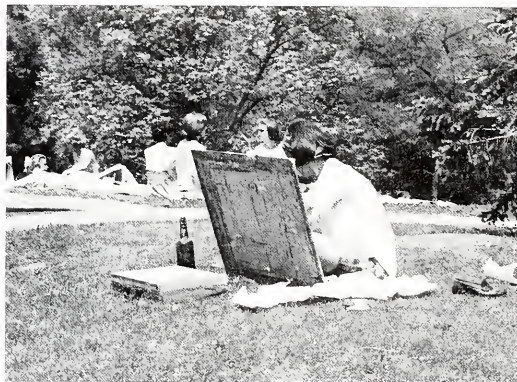

"Florida here we come!"

Spring fever attacks every year.

Spring

A typical May afternoon on Dupont hill.
